1. Purpose

This circular establishes class schedules for United States Army Alaska (USARAK) Schools, Fiscal Year 2010.

2. References

a. Related references.

(1) Army Regulation (AR) 25-400-2, The Army Records Information Management System (ARIMS).

(2) Common Table of Allowance (CTA) 50-900, Clothing and Individual Equipment.

(3) Field Manual (FM) 90-6, Mountain Operations.

(4) Soldier Training Publication (STP) 21-2, Common Task Testing.

(5) USARAK Regulation 385-1, USARAK Safety Program.

b. Referenced forms.

(1) DA Form 2028, Recommended Changes to Publications and Blank Forms is cited in the suggested improvements statement.

(2) DA Form 7281, Command Oriented Arms, Ammunition, and Explosive (AA&E) Security Screening and Evaluation Record is cited in paragraph A-8b.

3. Explanation of Abbreviations

The abbreviations used in this circular are explained in the glossary.

4. Administrative Responsibilities

a. All classes within this circular will be managed entirely by USAG FWA DPTMS, TSS Division Schools Section. Unit Schools NCOs are responsible for submitting a completed School's Request Form to the DPTMS Schools Section specifying which school is being requested with the specific date. DPTMS Schools Section will then enroll the Soldier into the specified course. All local courses will be managed through ATRRS using School Code 422 for Fort Richardson and 423 for Fort Wainwright.

b. Temporary duty (TDY) orders: Units are responsible for preparing and funding temporary duty orders for their personnel attending Alaska schools that are not conducted on their installation. If the requesting unit lacks sufficient funds to finance TDY costs, that unit is responsible to coordinate/request additional funding from USARAK G8. This includes all units sending Soldiers to Northern Warfare Training Center (NWTC).

c. Substitutions, cancellations and deferments: Units are responsible for submitting a memorandum signed by the first O5 in the Chain of Command with justification for the action prior to the suspense date.

5. General

The persons/activities responsible for conducting USARAK schools will ensure that classes begin and end during the time periods established in appendix A. Coordinate changes to class size, schedule, or reporting instructions through USAG FWA DPTMS, Schools Section at least 45-days before class reporting date. Class changes will be approved by USARAK G3 and USAG FWA DPTMS Schools Section.

6. Reporting Instructions

Appendix A lists the reporting instructions and locations for each course.

7. Suspense Dates

Schools NCOs will ensure school requests are received by USAG FWA DPTMS Schools Section, prior to the published suspense date. Published suspense dates for all courses will be followed. Courses with fewer than 50 percent of students enrolled by the close of business on the suspense date may be canceled at the discretion of USARAK G3 and USAG FWA DPTMS Schools Section. Appendix B contains a quick reference for suspense dates.

8. Reporting Dates

Appendix A specifies the reporting dates for each course.

9. Quota Distribution

Quota distributions have been established by USARAK G-3 and the Senior Mission Commander based on Operating Tempo (OPTEMPO).

A-4. Cold Weather Orientation Course—Northern Warfare Training Center (NWTC) ATRRS SC 699

a. Scope. The Cold Weather Orientation Course familiarizes commanders and staff officers with the knowledge/skills required in successfully planning and conducting operations in a cold, snow-covered environment. Emphasis is placed on the effects of cold on personnel and material, effects of the winter environment on operations, and planning considerations unique to the winter battlefield and cold regions. Cold weather risk-management procedures are stressed throughout the course of instruction.

b. Prerequisites.

(1) Enlisted personnel. E8 and above.

(2) Officer personnel. CW3/O3 and above.

c. Reporting instructions. Attendees must arrive at the Black Rapids Training Site between 1200 and 1600 on the report date. Due to limited parking at the Black Rapids Training Site, privately owned vehicles and individual government vehicle travel are not authorized. The NWTC is responsible for transportation from Fort Wainwright to the Black Rapids Training Site and return. The DPTMS Schools Branch will arrange bus transportation if there will be at least ten people attending from Fort Richardson. The unit is responsible for inter-Alaska travel if there will be fewer than ten people traveling from a given post. Soldiers arriving without the prescribed clothing and equipment items may be denied admission to the course. Post Exchange facilities will not be available during training; attendees must bring adequate personal hygiene items/sundries to last the duration of the course.

Special Note: Fort Wainwright Soldiers report to Building 3479, at 0800, on the report date. An equipment layout will be conducted before in-processing. An equipment layout will be conducted at Fort Richardson, at the discretion of NWTC personnel. All Soldiers are responsible for having the entire packing list, which is available on the NWTC Web site <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/>.

d. Class schedule. See the class schedule below.

Class	Report Date	End Date	Suspense
